the like of which may not be seen for MERION LOSES TO of top class, that it may see even more than its match in 1923. He who dares to predict in court in the second sec dares to predict in sport is indeed foolhardy.

it was a great season first, because it was featured by the work of the incomparable Navy eight, which topped a spring of sensational success with a brilliant triumph at Poughpsie, and a new record for the ree mile course. Many of the vet-ns declare that the mark of 13m. 3-5s, will stand for decades. They be right, and then again they true that the crews had a fine following wind in addition to the good urrent.

It was a great season secondly, because there were so many great crews. Every one of the five eights which followed the Navy across the line on Monday was inside the old record of 14 minutes 7 seconds set by the midshipmen in 1921. It was hard lines for Columbia to bring out one of the best crews it has had in years in a year of se many great crews. It was tough luck for Pennsylvania to have better than an average combination in a season in which better than the average was not sufficient. It was a source of great chagrin to Cornell to come out with a Cornell crew of the old stamp—and yet finish only fourth, a position in which a crew from Ithaca never before had been seen at the finish.

This was a season dominated by the greatest crew yet seen in this country—and perhaps in any other country as well. It was a Navy crew which had one man. Sanborn—who had rowed since 1919—a rara avis in college rowing. A four year crew man is a curicular indeed. It was a combination which had four men who had won the world championship at the Olympic regatts at Brussels, seven men who had won the had four men who had won the national title at Poughkeepsie the year before. This combination of long experience, great skill, tremendous drive and power, high physical capabilities and splendid coaching by Dick

The race was started by the regatta

C. Rentemann and William Washburn
Nutting.

The race was started by the regatta committee of the New Rochelle Yacht Club. The course is through the south and then east to the Vineyard Sound Lightship and the west, keeping south of Block Island and Long Island to the finish in Gravesend Bay. The wind was light at the start, but the yachtsmen are hopeful that it will breeze on and help them to make a good race. William Remsen, American Yacht Club, and George P. Cranbery, 'New Rochelle Yacht Club, are the judges.

The Azor being the largest boat under the rule of measurement has to allow time to all the others. The course is 252 miles and the allowances are: Butterfly, 15:08; Hookah, 21:15; Dolphin, 3:34:46; Surprise, 3:38:47; Malabar, 6:17:50.

The yachts may finish to-morrow if they have fair weather.

CAPTAIN ALCOCK.

Martingale and Captain Alcock Win Stake Races

Ponce on Captain Alcock. When Schut-Ponce on Captain Alcock. When Schuttinger let down Bon Homme he sprang forward as his jockey and followers expected him to, but he didn't spring away very far. He gained a length and when he entered the homestretch he was only two lengths ahead of Captain Alcock, who was moving forward rapidly and away from Letterman.

When well straightened out in the stretch Ponce gave Captain Alcock one crack of the whip. The old son of Ogden responded gamely, and a quarter of a mile from home he was at the leader's throatlatch. Then Bon Homme began to weaken as Captain Alcock seemed to run faster. With Bon Homme disposed of Ponce sat back and began to give his mount an easy ride.

CHICAGO MERMAID BREAKS 3 RECORDS

Sensational in First Eastern Appearance.

Miss Sybli Bauer, peerless backstroke swimmer of the Illinois A. C. of Chicago, shattered three world records at her first Eastern appearance in the Olympic lagoon of the Manhattan Beach Bath yeaterday afternoon.

Competing first in a 100 meter (103.3 yard) invitation backstroke match, she defeated, by fifteen yards, her opponent, Miss Dorothy Donohue of the New York Women's Swimming Association and 'covered the straightaway course in 1 minute 24 1-5 seconds, or 8 1-5 seconds under the former international open water standard, held by Miss Ethelda Bleibtrey of this city.

On the way to the full distance Miss Bauer passed 100 yards in 1 minute 15 2-5 seconds, beating by four-tifth of a second her own world straightaway mark, set in Lake Michigan last summer.

Miss Bauer's third record achievement came in a 50 yard scratch backstroke dash which followed. She won the event in 35 1-5 seconds, cilipping four-fifths of a second from the world's open water record, hung up by Miss Bleibtrey in Honolulu two years ago.

Little Miss Aileen Riggin of the New York Women's Swimming Association gave the Western marvel a good fight in this race. She finished second, hardly two yards back, so that she must have gone dangerously close to the former record herself.

Another Surprise.

The senior Metropolitan A. A. W. 100 yard, free style, championship for women, another feature of the meet, furnished a most unexpected surprise. At thirteen year old lassie, Miss Doris O'Mara of the New York Women's Swimming Association, carried off the coveted title in the remarkable time of 1 minute 11 1-5 seconds, taking the measure of Miss Riggin, favorite in the absence of Miss Riggin, favorite in the absence of Miss Helen Wainwright, national holder, now in California.

The district classic brought to the mark four contenders, the Misses Ethel Baker and Lillian Stoddard, junior national champions at 220 and 850 yards, completing the quartet. It provided a stirring contest.

The youthful victor set out at a driving pace and left her field at once, gaining a couple of yards on her nearest rival before reaching the 50 yard post. But after the half way mark Miss Riggin started to make her bid and quickly closed the gap, leaving the other two. Ten yards from home she was almost abreast of Miss O'Mara, but the latter saw her danger and sprinted. She just managed to earn the decision by a few inches. Miss Baker was third.

Leonard-Tendler Bout May Be Staged at Velodrome

Johnny Dundes yesterday agreed to terms offered by the Ebbets-McKeever Company to box Danny Frush fifteen rounds to a decision at Ebbets Field for the featherweight championship on August 17. Dave Driscoll closed the match. The New York Boxing Commission June 20 announced its decision that Kilbane's claim to the featherweight title was vacated and that Danny Frush and Johnny Dundes should meet to decide the new featherweight championship. Frush signed for the match a few hours after the decision was announced.
